

Professional profile

OLGA REZNYTSKA

PRACTICE FOCUS

Olga specializes in patent and trademark prosecution matters. She provides a full scope of services related to IP portfolio management, including providing recommendations on registrability, trademark watch, trademark similarity and identity searches, registration of trademarks according to national and international procedures, preparing replies to oppositions and provisional refusals, preparing appeals to the Chamber of Appeals, preparing third-party oppositions.

Olga is also experienced in registering patents for designs, inventions, and utility models, including preparing and filing the applications, analysis of Examination requests, preparing recommendations thereto, drafting responses to office actions, obtaining letters of patent, monitoring annuity payments.

She is also experienced in copyright registration, drafting trademark and patent assignment agreements, license agreements their further registration.

EDUCATION

- Kyiv Institute for Translators and Interpreters, Kyiv, Master degree in English and French, 2012
- Institute of Intellectual Property National University “Odessa Law Academy” in Kyiv, Management of IP, Master, 2018

LANGUAGES

- English
- German
- French
- Russian
- Ukrainian